Public Sector Networks

There has been a significant government departmental headquarters presence since the relocation of Manpower Services Commission to Sheffield in the 1970s.

8,500 public service employees are employed in South Yorkshire, across a wide range of departments, but with a particular emphasis on crime, policing and immigration and education and employment. Your career has the opportunity to thrive.

The public sector skills and experience is further enhanced by the presence of:

- Four local authorities: Barnsley Metropolitan Borough Council, Doncaster Metropolitan Borough Council, Rotherham Metropolitan Borough Council and Sheffield City Council
- Two universities: The University of Sheffield and Sheffield Hallam University

“It is also clear from the experience of such departments as Health and Education & Skills that that national policy can be an is done perfectly well out of London, and that such departments are able to draw on a correspondingly wider pool of talent.”

Sir Michael Lyons

- NHS Trusts: Barnsley Hospital NHS Foundation Trust, Barnsley PCT, Doncaster and Bassetlaw Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust, Doncaster and South Humber Healthcare NHS Trust, Doncaster PCT, The Rotherham NHS Foundation Trust, Rotherham PCT, Sheffield PCT, Sheffield Care Trust, Sheffield Childrens NHS Foundation Trust and Sheffield Teaching Hospitals Trust
- Regional offices for the following:

Children and Family Court Advisory and Support Service (CAFCASS), Crown Prosecution Service (CPS), DVLA, Employment Tribunals Service, HM Coroner (Medico Legal Centre), The Insolvency Service, Probation Service, Open College Network, Valuation Office, VOSA

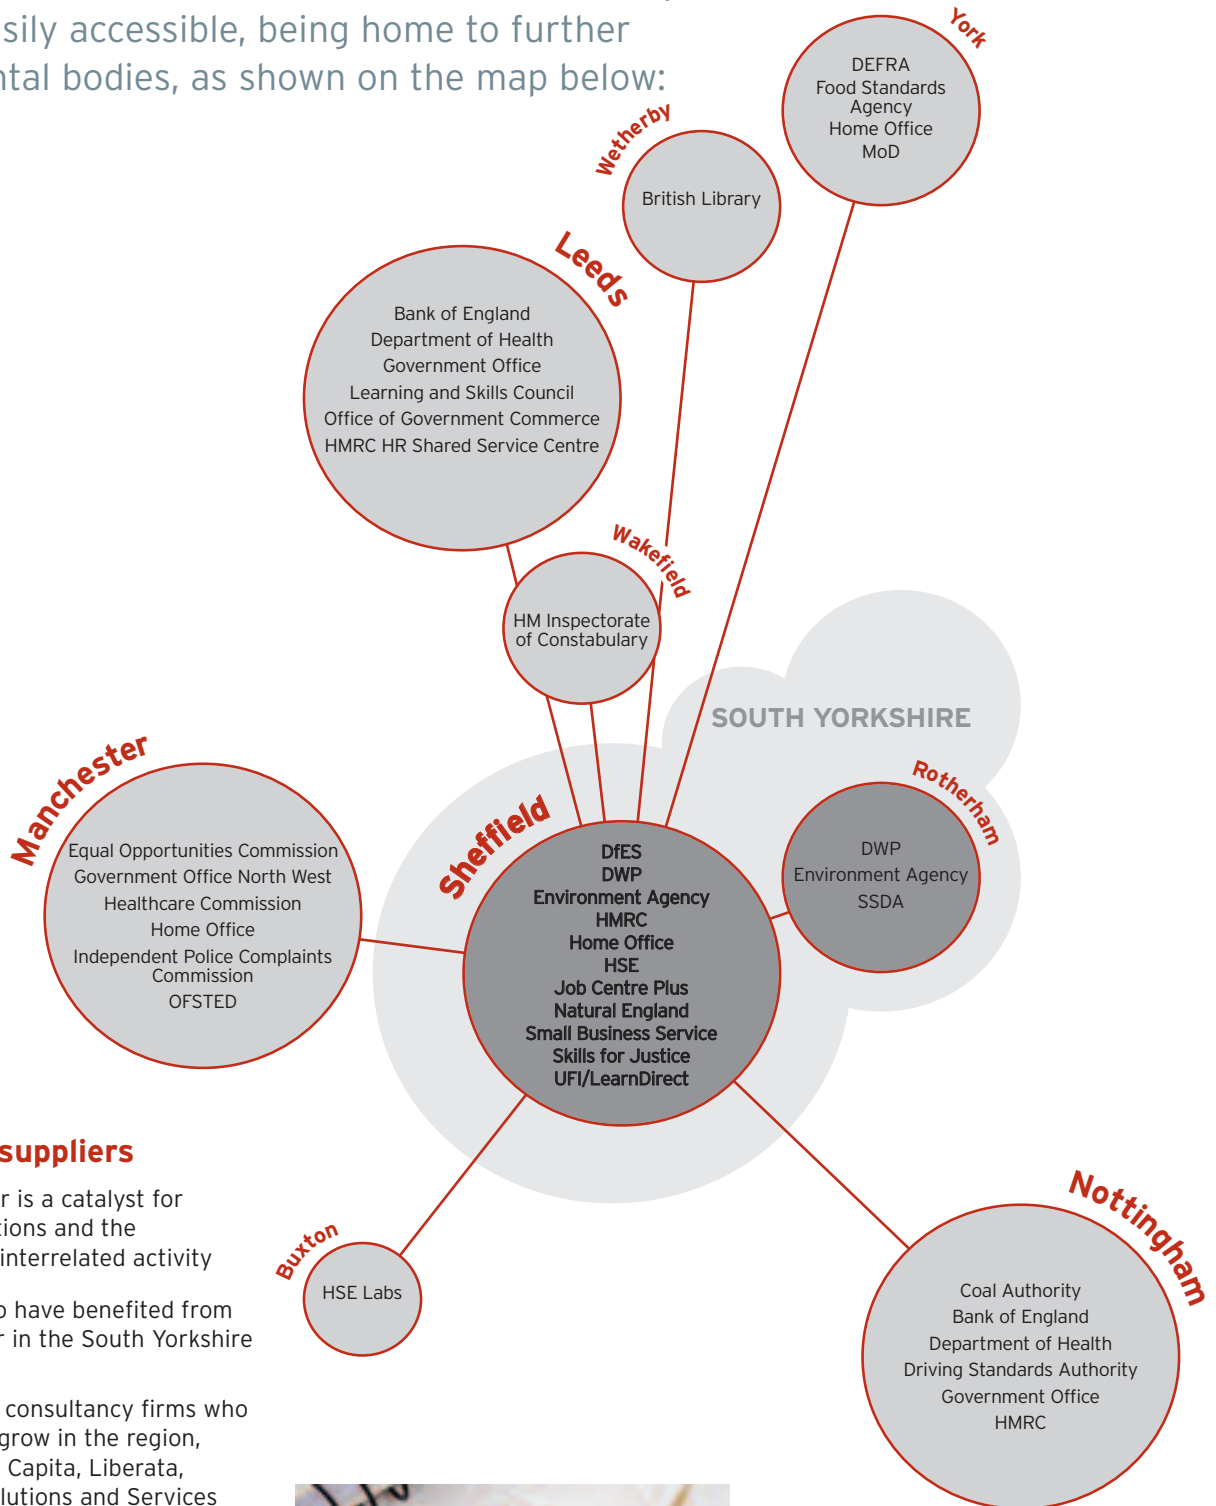

- South Yorkshire Police, South Yorkshire Passenger Transport Authority, Sheffield Combined Court and Sheffield Magistrates Court.

Services & suppliers

The public sector is a catalyst for supportive functions and the development of interrelated activity

Outsourcers who have benefited from the public sector in the South Yorkshire region include:

- Private sector consultancy firms who have room to grow in the region, including EDS, Capita, Liberata, Siemens IT Solutions and Services
- The Public Services Academy (PSA) at the University of Sheffield which utilises the extensive and high-level public service related expertise at the university, providing social science research collaborations with public service delivery organisations.
